

Piano Lessons

I go to piano lessons on _____ at _____.

My teacher's name is _____.

My teacher's job is to help me learn how to play the piano.

I need to listen to my teacher. They will tell me what to do to get better at making music on the piano. It helps to look at my teacher's face when they talk, so they know I'm listening. I need to watch my teacher's hands when they show me how to move my fingers.

Sometimes it's my turn to play on the piano. Sometimes it's my teacher's turn to play on the piano. Sometimes we play at the same time. Sometimes I need to wait for my turn to play on the piano. I need to stop playing when my teacher says to stop playing.

Sometimes we look at music in books to help me know how to play the piano. Learning to read music takes time and practice. It's okay if I don't know how to read music straight away. My teacher will help me learn to read music. My teacher is proud of me when I listen and try my best.

Practicing at home will help me get better at playing the piano. My teacher will give me a list of things to practice, like homework. I need to do my piano homework first. Then I can make my own music on the piano. Learning to play the piano is fun!
